3.5.3. GENERAL CONFLICT OF INTEREST GUIDELINES

The following conflict of interest guidelines have been established to give the public confidence in the integrity of charitable organizations conducting lottery events. As this is a sensitive issue, licensees must be vigilant in preventing any possibility of a potential or perceived conflict of interest.

1. No member, principal officer or paid staff of an applicant organization may be involved, in any way, in the approval of a licence application and/or the conduct and management of a licensed event. For example, a member of a municipal council who is also a member of the applicant organization must refrain from offering an opinion or vote on the granting of the licence, must not sign the application and must not have any direct or indirect dealings or decision-making authority with respect to the licensed event.
2. No person assisting in the conduct and management of a lottery event may have any monetary interest in any card, ticket or bet, or have a chance to win a lottery prize in any way.
3. No designated member responsible for the conduct of the licensed lottery, or volunteers assisting with the lottery, may have any direct or indirect personal financial interest in the funds raised.

#11.

Licensee must provide this information. Note that the drum/box used for tickets must have ample space for all tickets to move around when rotated. A clear container provides ticket purchasers with the most assurance of the level of integrity of the event.

#13.

The licensee must determine how long they will wait before pulling another number. This may depend on the location, the event. Time of the final draw will also be determined by the location and event. Details must be included in your rules.

#14 & 15.

Please print the names and include their title/position or connection to the licensee.

#16.

Licensee must provide address and phone # for winner to the Municipality of Bluewater's Corporate Services Department. (see sample sheet provided). Winner information must also be posted on the licensee's website at a minimum.
